

£15.2M

BIG LOTTERY FUND

Building the legacy of the Glasgow 2014 Commonwealth Games

1,940

Clyde-siders supported to overcome barriers to volunteering

642

Projects funded across Scotland to celebrate the Commonwealth

3,895

Projects funded across Scotland to encourage physical activity

Celebrate

(Grants up to £10k)
* see overleaf

Volunteer Support

Major Grants

2014
Communities
(Grants up to £2k)

7

major grants to boost the legacy of the Games

People's Development Trust:

a new multi-purpose community hub in Dalmarnock, East End of Glasgow

University of West of Scotland:

helping local people tell Commonwealth stories through digital technology

Mytime Active:

using a clinically proven model to tackle childhood obesity across Scotland

Firstport:

young people regenerating their areas by starting new social enterprises

Glasgow Life:

supported 1,174 Host City Volunteers to change the face of Glasgow during Games time

Active East:

increasing physical activity & leadership among young people in East Glasgow

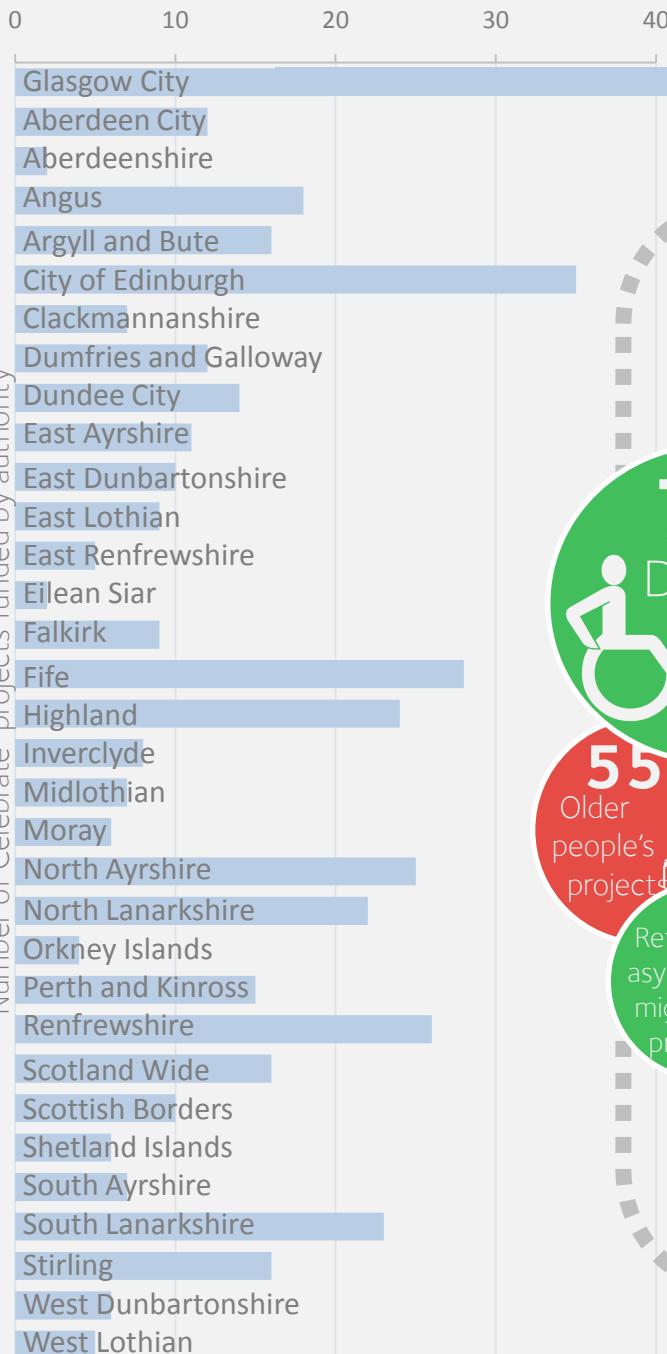

Pilotlight:

linking social enterprises & charities to volunteer businesses, 2014 partners and Games sponsors

Celebrate

Joint funded with:
sportscotland
 the national agency for sport

Celebrate
projects include

427

Children & Young People's Projects

74

Disability Projects

55

Older people's projects

95

BME Projects

34

Refugee, asylum & migrant projects

159

Projects in deprived areas

5

LGBT
projects

“ It felt real & supported. I met new people, tried new dishes – it was a big thing for me.
 (Shola Adeleki)

Croftcroighn School's Neums of Namibia project received £5,830

1000
tickets to the Commonwealth Games

distributed to Big Lottery Fund graholders from The Scottish Government's Legacy 2014
tickets initiative